STATEMENT REGARDING ORAL ARGUMENT

The State requests oral argument. The State is asking this Court to decide an important issue regarding the scope of the Texas "Rape Shield" law as expressed under Rule of Evidence 412, and its interplay with other rules of evidence. Namely, the purpose of Rule 412 as a rule of exclusion designed to protect victims of sexual assault has been called into question by the opinion of the court below. Determination of this case will require consideration of competing evidentiary doctrines and the proper balance to be struck between them. Discussion will help to clarify these matters and resolve the issues presented.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Appellant pleaded not guilty to the offense of Sexual Assault. He was found guilty at jury trial and sentenced to probation. Appellant presented six points of error on appeal to the 10th Court of Appeals. The court of appeals first overruled Appellant's complaint as to the sufficiency of the indictment, as a finding for Appellant on that point would have afforded greater relief than his other points of error. The court of appeals then found that the trial court had erred in refusing to admit text messages under Rules of Evidence 412 and 107. The court of appeals reversed the conviction and remanded the case for a new trial.

STATEMENT OF PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On March 22, 2017, the court of appeals reversed appellant's conviction in an unpublished opinion and remanded for a new trial. Ukwuachu v. State, 10-15-00376-CR, 2017 WL 1101284 (Tex. App.—Waco Mar. 22, 2017). No motion for rehearing was filed. The State's petition is due on April 21, 2017.

GROUNDS FOR REVIEW

1. The court of appeals misapplied the standard of review for admission of evidence under Rule 412 and 107 in a manner that so far departed from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings as to call for an exercise of the Court of Criminal Appeals' power of supervision.
2. The court of appeals' failure to conduct a proper harm analysis so far departed from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings as to call for an exercise of the Court of Criminal Appeals' power of supervision.

ARGUMENT AND AUTHORITIES

The court of appeals misapplied the governing evidentiary standard.

The court of appeals' opinion departed from this Court's precedent and misapplied the applicable standard of review. The State's argument addresses the evidentiary ruling and the court of appeals' analysis under Rules of Evidence 412 and 107.

The failure to conduct a proper harm analysis requires review.

The court of appeals' failure to conduct a proper harm analysis also calls for this Court's review. The petition requests review of the court of appeals' decision and remand for consideration of Appellant's remaining points of error.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the State of Texas prays that the Court of Criminal Appeals grant this Petition for Discretionary Review, reverse the court of appeals decision and remand the case so that the court of appeals can consider Appellant's remaining points of error.
