7. The Trustee has requested that Defendant turn the funds over to the estate as they are preferential payments. Two letters have been sent to Defendant requesting that the funds be turned over to the bankruptcy estate of Joseph R. 10. Further, the Bankruptcy Code at §542(a) explains that an entity in possession of property that may be used, sold or leased by the Trustee or that can be exempted under section 522 of the code, shall deliver such property to the Trustee and shall account for the property.

11. The Trustee and Trustee's counsel request reimbursement for fees and costs incurred for filing this complaint as follows:
