16. Rocket may be served with process c/o CT Corporation System, 300 Montvue Rd, Knoxville, TN 37919.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Plaintiff incorporates the above allegations as if set forth here.

Background

18. Some time prior to 2001, Plaintiff and his then-wife allegedly took out a loan subject to a mortgage for property located at 132 Hillside Drive, Hendersonville (the Original Mortgage).

19. In or around 2010, Plaintiff and wife finalized their divorce.

20. [Paragraph 21 is only partly legible in the filed PDF's text layer.]

21. The refinancing paid off the Original Mortgage.

22. The refinanced Loan did not include Plaintiff as a borrower or as responsible for it in any way.

23. The Servicer at the time of the refinancing was Ocwen.

24. Ocwen confirmed to Plaintiff that he was not responsible in any way for the Original Loan or Mortgage.

25. At some time during the life of the Loan, Nationstar / Mr. Cooper took over servicing the Account.

26. Nationstar / Mr. Cooper was then acquired by Defendant Rocket.

27. However, despite Plaintiff not being responsible for the Account, his credit reports from each Bureau were showing with derogatory information for the Account.

28. Each Bureau was showing a balance of $102,191.

29. Each Bureau was showing Plaintiff as 90 days late in August 2025.

30. Each Bureau was showing Plaintiff as 60 days late in December 2025.

31. Each Bureau was showing Plaintiff as 30 days late in January 2026.

32. Plaintiff did not owe $102,191 for the Account.

33. Plaintiff was not 90 days late in August 2025.

34. Plaintiff was not 60 days late in December 2025.

35. Plaintiff was not 30 days late in January 2026.

36. The information furnished by Furnisher and published by each Bureau is and was inaccurate.

37. Each Bureau has been reporting this inaccurate information through the issuance of false and inaccurate credit information and consumer reports that it has disseminated to various persons and credit grantors, both known and unknown.

38. [Paragraphs 39 and 40 are partly legible in the filed PDF's text layer; paragraph 40 reads: "This is false."]

39. Plaintiff was not delinquent.

40. Plaintiff was released from obligation for this Mortgage.

Violations

41. In or about sometime in 2025 Plaintiff disputed the Account with one or more of the nationwide Credit Reporting Agencies (Experian, Trans Union, and Equifax) (Collectively, the Bureaus).

42. [Paragraphs 44 and 45 are partly legible in the filed PDF's text layer. Paragraph 45 refers to a dispute submitted on or about January 9, 2026.]

43. Plaintiff sent disputes to each Bureau disputing the Furnisher-reported debt as inaccurate.

44. Plaintiff advised that he was released from the Mortgage.

45. Plaintiff stated that he was no longer a party to the Account.

46. Plaintiff included supporting documentation.

47. It is not possible for Plaintiff to owe on the Account when he is not a responsible party for it.

48. Upon receipt of the dispute of the Account by the Plaintiff, each Bureau failed to conduct a reasonable investigation and continued to report false and inaccurate adverse information on the consumer report of the Plaintiff with respect to the disputed Account.

49. [Paragraphs 52 and 53 are partly legible in the filed PDF's text layer. Paragraph 53 avers that each Bureau notified the Furnisher of the dispute.]

50. Upon receipt of the dispute of the Account by the Plaintiff from each Bureau, Furnisher failed to conduct a reasonable investigation and continued to report false and inaccurate adverse information on the consumer report of the Plaintiff with respect to the disputed Account.

51. Had each Bureau conducted a reasonable investigation it would have been revealed that the Account is inaccurate.

52. Had Furnisher conducted a reasonable investigation it would have been revealed that the Account is inaccurate.

53. Despite the dispute by the Plaintiff that the information on his consumer report was inaccurate with respect to the disputed account, each Defendant did not evaluate or consider any of the information, claims, or evidence of the Plaintiff and did not make an attempt to substantially reasonably verify that the derogatory information concerning the disputed account was inaccurate.

54. Despite being in possession of the Dispute(s) and documentation, each Bureau failed to request from Furnisher supporting documentation.

55. Despite being in possession of the Dispute(s) and documentation, each Bureau failed to request that Furnisher confirm whether the specific terms in the documentation Plaintiff provided was accurately portrayed.

56. [Paragraphs 60 and 61 are partly legible in the filed PDF's text layer.]

57. Each Bureau violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b) by failing to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy of the information concerning the Plaintiff.

58. Furnisher violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b) by failing to fully and properly investigate the dispute of the Plaintiff, failing to review all relevant information regarding same, and failing to correctly report results of an accurate investigation to each Bureau.

59. Each Defendant continued to publish and disseminate such inaccurate information to other third parties, persons, entities and credit grantors.

60. Each Defendant knew the information was inaccurate.

61. Each Defendant was in possession of evidence showing its reporting of the Account was inaccurate.

62. Had each Bureau enacted and followed reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy, the inaccurate information would not have been reported.

63. Furnisher continues to furnish credit data which is inaccurate and materially misleading.

Damages

64. [Paragraphs 69 and 70 are partly legible in the filed PDF's text layer. They describe harm to Plaintiff's creditworthiness and credit score.]

65. Plaintiff suffered damage to his reputation as it falsely appears as if he owes a large balance on the Account.

66. Plaintiff suffered damage to his reputation as it falsely appears as if he was delinquent on the Account.

67. This false information was published to numerous third parties.

68. This negative information reflected poorly upon Plaintiff and is incompatible with his creditworthiness.

69. Plaintiff has, inter alia, suffered damage by loss of time and money in trying to correct the information, loss of the ability to purchase and benefit from credit, reputational harm, decreased credit score, a chilling effect on applications for credit, difficulty with sleep, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation, and embarrassment of credit denial and having others see the false credit information.

70. Plaintiff was also unable to partake in funding opportunities due to each Defendant's reporting.

71. Plaintiff was emotionally distraught.

72. Plaintiff had trouble with sleep.

73. When applying for a credit card with American Express, he was denied due in whole or in part to the inaccurate reporting.

74. Plaintiff was also only able to obtain an auto loan with higher rates due in whole or in part to the inaccurate reporting.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violations of the FCRA as to each Bureau)

75. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations above as if set forth here.

76. This is an action for willful and/or negligent violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.

77. Each Bureau violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b) by failing to establish or to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy in the preparation of the credit report and credit files that each Bureau maintained or furnished concerning the Plaintiff.

78. Each Bureau violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a) by failing to conduct a reasonable reinvestigation of the Dispute and by failing to maintain reasonable procedures with which to verify the disputed information in the credit file.

79. Upon information and belief, each Bureau failed to provide notice of the Dispute to each Furnisher or, in the alternative, if each Bureau did provide notice, failed to provide Plaintiff all relevant information received from Furnisher.

80. Each Bureau has willfully and recklessly failed to comply with the Act.

81. In the alternative, each Bureau has negligently failed to comply with the Act.

82. The failure of each Bureau to comply with the Act includes but is not necessarily limited to the following:

(a) The failure to enact and follow reasonable procedures to assure the maximum possible accuracy of the information reported;

(b) The failure to remove and/or correct the inaccuracy and derogatory credit information after a reasonable request by the Plaintiff;

(c) The failure to promptly and adequately investigate information which each Bureau had notice was inaccurate;

(d) The continual placement of inaccurate information into the credit report of the Plaintiff after being advised by the Plaintiff, which was demonstrated with documentation that the information was inaccurate;

(e) The failure to promptly delete information that was found to be inaccurate, or could not be verified, or that the source of information had advised each Bureau to delete;

(f) The failure to take adequate steps to verify information each Bureau had reason to believe was inaccurate before including it in the credit report of the consumer; and

(g) The failure to provide notice of a dispute to the furnisher or, alternatively, the failure to provide Plaintiff all relevant information received from the furnisher in response to a dispute.

83. As a result of the conduct, action, and inaction of each Bureau, Plaintiff suffered damage as described above.

84. The conduct, action and inaction of each Bureau was willful and/or negligent, rendering each Bureau liable for actual, statutory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a judge and/or jury pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681n-1681o.

85. Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees from each Bureau in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681n-1681o.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of the FCRA as to Furnisher)

86. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations above as if set forth here.

87. This is an action for willful and/or negligent violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.

88. Pursuant to the Act, all persons who furnished information to reporting agencies must participate in re-investigations conducted by the agencies when consumers dispute the accuracy and completeness of information contained in a consumer credit report.

89. Pursuant to the Act, a furnisher of disputed information is notified by the reporting agency when the agency receives a notice of dispute from a consumer such as the Plaintiff.

90. The furnisher must then conduct a timely investigation of the disputed information and review all relevant information provided by the agency.

91. The results of the investigation must be reported to the agency and, if the investigation reveals that the original information is incomplete or inaccurate, the furnisher must report the results to any other agencies which were supplied such information.

92. Furnisher violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b) as described above, including, but not limited to, failing to fully and properly investigate the dispute of the Plaintiff, failing to review all relevant information regarding same, and failing to correctly report results of an accurate investigation to the credit reporting agencies.

93. As a result of the conduct, action, and inaction of Furnisher, Plaintiff suffered damage as described above.

94. The conduct, action, and inaction of Furnisher was willful and/or negligent, rendering it liable for actual, statutory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a jury pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681n-1681o.

95. Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees from Furnisher in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681n-1681o.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment for damages together with attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681n-1681o.

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

96. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury for all claims and issues in this complaint to which Plaintiff is or may be entitled to a jury trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment from each Defendant as follows:

(a) For actual damages provided and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681o(a) be awarded for each negligent violation as alleged herein;

(b) For statutory damages provided and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n(a);

(c) For punitive damages provided and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n(a)(2);

(d) For attorney's fees and costs provided and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n(a)(3) and 15 U.S.C. § 1681o(a)(2);

(e) For any such other and further relief, as well as further costs, expenses and disbursements of this action as this Court may deem just and proper.
