In re: [TITAN SOLAR POWER] PM & M ELECTRIC, INC., Debtor.	Chapter 7 Case No. 2:24-bk-04978-MCW TRUSTEE'S STIPULATED MOTION TO COMPROMISE CLAIMS AMONG AFFILIATED ESTATES [F.R.B.P. 9019] Seeks approval of a compromise of claims among affiliated estates under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019.

2. David M. Reaves is the Chapter 7 trustee for the following five (5) bankruptcy estates (the "Reaves Estates"):

- Titan Solar Power CO, Inc., 2:24-bk-05225-MCW
- Titan Solar Power TX, Inc., 2:24-bk-05248-MCW
- Titan Solar Power UT, Inc., 2:24-bk-05249-MCW
- Titan Solar Power VA, Inc., 2:24-bk-05250-MCW
- Titan Electrical Services, Inc., 2:24-bk-05253-MCW

3. Anthony H. Mason is the Chapter 7 trustee for the following four (4) bankruptcy estates (the "Mason Estates"):

- Titan Solar Power CA, Inc., 2:24-bk-05224-MCW
- Titan Solar Power NJ, Inc., 2:24-bk-05239-MCW
- Titan Solar Power SC, Inc., 2:24-bk-05243-MCW
- Titan Solar Power GA, Inc., 2:24-bk-05227-MCW

4. Lothar Goernitz is the Chapter 7 trustee for the Estate of Titan Solar Power NV, Inc. 2:24-bk-5025-MCW ("Goernitz Estate" and collectively with the Birdsell Estates, the Reaves Estates, and the Mason Estates, the "Estates").

5. The Birdsell Estates, Reaves Estates, and Mason Estates are jointly administered under the lead case, PM & M Electric, Inc. [Titan Solar Power], case number 2:24-bk-04978-MCW ("Lead Case").

6. Debtors' bankruptcy cases were commenced by voluntary petitions filed under Chapter 7 of Title 11 in June 2024.[1]

7. Prepetition, Debtors were in the business of, inter alia, installing solar panels in different states all over the country.

8. Upon information and belief, the Debtors operated independently in specific states and PM & M Electric, Inc. ("PMM") served as a quasi-parent company. Despite being distinctly separate legal entities, at times it appears the Debtors pooled assets and funds when necessary for business operations – this includes making intercompany loans/transfers between the Debtors, utilizing single insurance policies that covered multiple debtors, sharing employees/directors, and incurring debt together.

9. Given the foregoing business model, there are a variety of assets that may be titled, owned, or held in the name of an individual debtor that belong to some or all of the Debtors.

10. Given the number of Debtors, the volume of financial data, and the complexity of the financial entanglement amongst the Debtors, the Trustees believe that unraveling all of the claims and asset issues amongst them would be incredibly costly (likely over $250,000.00) and would cause serious delays to administration of the Estates.

11. The Trustees propose to treat the following assets as shared assets more fully set forth below ("Shared Assets"):

[1] Debtors refers collectively to all Titan entities listed in Paragraphs 1–4.

Relevant Pleading	Docket Entry	Value
Settlement Proceeds from Trustees v. Kenneth Williams, et al., 2:25-ap-00115-MCW ("Adversary")	Lead Case DE: 759; Nevada DE[2]: 167	$5,000,000.00
Cash surrender value of whole life insurance policy proceeds	Lead Case DE: 283 and 288	$1,713,742.00
Sale of Customer List	Lead Case DE: 400 and 529; Nevada DE: 105 and 123	$65,000.00
Possible refund from First Insurance Funding[3]	N/A	Unknown
TOTAL		$6,778,742.00

12. The Trustees propose to treat the following costs as costs to be shared amongst the Estates as more fully set forth below ("Shared Costs"):

Paid by	Date	Payee	Lead Case DE	Amount
PM&M	9/20/24	First Insurance Funding	77	$17,144.48
PM&M	10/2/24	First Insurance Funding	77	$17,144.48
PM&M	10/11/24	First Insurance Funding	77	$45,807.50
PM&M	10/11/24	First Insurance Funding	77	$9,161.50
PM&M	12/4/24	Blue Banyan	114	$4,079.17
PM&M	12/5/24	First Insurance Funding	77	$9,161.50
PM&M	1/6/25	First Insurance Funding	77	$9,161.50
PM&M	2/1/25	Blue Banyan	114	$1,008.33
PM&M	2/4/25	First Insurance Funding	77	$17,144.48

[2] "Nevada DE" refers to the docket entry of the filing in the Lothar Estate.

[3] First Insurance Funding ("FIF") represented that it financed 12 insurance premiums for the Debtors pre-petition. (Lead Case DE 33, pg. 2, ¶ 7). FIF and certain Trustees expressly agreed not to cancel the Management Policy and Package Policy. (Lead DE 33, pg. 6, ¶ 2). Given the foregoing, Trustee Birdsell made payments for, inter alia, the Package Policy. (Lead DE 33, pg. 7, ¶ 6). FIF represented the Package Policy would remain in place. However, the Trustees allege FIF failed to make payments necessary or take actions necessary to reinstate the Package Policy, giving the Trustees rise to claims against FIF for reimbursement for all funds paid to FIF for the Package Policy.

Paid by	Date	Payee	Lead Case DE	Amount
PM&M	6/18/25	Inertia	652	$35,298.09
Titan Solar Power AZ, Inc.	8/15/24	Blue Banyan	114	$9,800.00
Titan Solar Power AZ, Inc.	10/2/24	Blue Banyan	114	$2,589.58

Titan Solar Power AZ, Inc.	6/6/25	Blue Banyan	114	$2,727.08
TOTAL				$211,738.14

13. As such, the Trustees propose this global settlement to resolve the issues delineated herein.

II. Settlement Proposal

14. Subject to Bankruptcy Court approval, the Trustees propose the following global settlement:

a. The Trustee agrees agree to split the Shared Assets pursuant to the attached Exhibit A.[4] Trustee Birdsell is holding (or will soon be holding) the entirety of the Shared Assets in the bankruptcy estate for PMM.[5]

i. Within thirty days after the entry of an Order approving this Application, Trustee Birdsell shall distribute from the appropriate PMM estate bank account, the funds delineated in Column G of Exhibit A to the appropriate Trustee.[6] The foregoing distribution represents each estate's interest in the Shared Assets;

[4] The proposed distributions are based on the respective Debtors' 2023 financials.

[5] The settlement proceeds from the Adversary will be deposited into a separate PMM bank account.

[6] PMM will retain its share of the funds as reflected in Exhibit A.

ii. Within thirty days after receipt of the distribution from Trustee Birdsell, the Trustees shall reimburse the PMM and the Titan Solar Power AZ, Inc. bankruptcy estates for payment of Shared Costs pursuant to Columns E and F of Exhibit A.[7]

iii. Within thirty days after the later of the entry of an Order approving this Application or the entry of an Order approving the Trustee's Motion: (1) to Approve Settlement Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019; and for (2) Payment of Special Counsel's Fees and Costs ("D&O 9019") (Lead Case DE 759 and Nevada DE 167), the Trustees shall pay Special Counsel pursuant to Column H of Exhibit A;

iv. Within thirty days after the later of the entry of an Order approving this Application or the entry of an Order approving the First Fee Application for Allowance and Payment of Trustee's Forensic Accountant and Financial Advisor's Fees and Expenses ("Resolute Fee Application") (Lead Case DE 760 and Nevada DE 168), the Trustees shall pay Resolute pursuant to Column I of Exhibit A; and

v. From the Shared Asset distributions, Trustee Birdsell, in his capacity as Trustee for PMM, will be paid compensation under 11 U.S.C. § 326 for distributing the $1,713,742.00[8] (this includes the distributions to the other estates and any remaining distribution from PMM), but will not be paid a commission for the distribution from PMM to the other bankruptcy estates on the remaining $5,065,000.00,[9] as these amounts were being held on behalf of the other bankruptcy estates and were not solely property of the PMM bankruptcy estate.

b. The Trustees have continued to extend the deadline by which they may file claims against these affiliated Estates. The Trustees agree to waive any and all claims between and among the Estates that are parties to this Motion. To the extent the Trustees had to file claims in these Estates, such an endeavor would likely be incredibly costly given

[7] This provision does not apply to PMM.

[8] This figure is the total of the cash surrender value of the life insurance policies.

[9] The amounts represent the proceeds from the sale of the customer list ($65,000.00) and the proceeds from the settlement of Adversary ($5,000,000.00).

the intertwined nature of the financials amongst the Debtors. Therefore, the Trustees anticipate that the administrative costs associated with pursuit of the claims would likely exceed any recovery.[10]

c. To the extent there are future Shared Costs, the Trustees propose to split them in accordance with the Column D of Exhibit A and will file an ex parte Request to Pay and lodge an appropriate Order.

i. The Trustees anticipate additional shared mailing costs. The Trustees agree that the mailing costs associated with noticing the D&O 9019, Resolute Fee Application, this Application, any notice of hearing, and any pleading that relates to all Estates shall be a Shared Cost subject to the percentage split delineated in Column D of Exhibit A. After the foregoing have been noticed, the Trustees will file a Notice of Costs which sets forth the total mailing costs and the proposed distribution of costs consistent with Exhibit A. The Trustees believe that noticing items together will help reduce costs and streamline the notice process.

III. Legal Argument

The requested relief is authorized by Rule 9019(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure which provides as follows:

> On motion by the trustee and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement. Notice shall be given to creditors, the United States Trustee, the debtor, the indenture trustee as provided in Rule 2002 and to any other entity as the court may direct.

The Trustee, in the exercise of his best business judgment and in consideration of the requirements of A & C Properties, 784 F.2d 1377 (9th Cir. 1986), In re Woodson, 839 F.2d 610 (9th Cir. 1988), and In re Schmitt, 215 B.R. 417 (9th Cir. BAP 1997), believes that the proposed compromise and settlement is an appropriate resolution of this matter.

[10] Further, the Trustee anticipates that any claim held by an Estate against another estate would be a general unsecured claim. Given many estates have higher priority claims, recovery to such an unsecured claim is speculative.

Bankruptcy courts have broad discretion in approving compromise agreements. In re Woodson, 839 F.2d at 620. The Court may approve a compromise if it is fair and equitable. Id. In determining the fairness and adequacy of a proposed compromise agreement, the Court should consider the following four factors: (1) the probability of success in litigation; (2) the difficulties, if any, to be encountered in collection; (3) the complexity of the litigation involved as well as the expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attendant to the litigation; and (4) the paramount interest of creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views.

Consideration of these factors does not require the Court to decide questions of law or fact raised in the controversies sought to be settled, or determine that the compromise presented is the best possible outcome. Rather, the Court need only canvass the issues to determine whether the settlement fails "below the lowest point in the zone of reasonableness". Newman v. Stein, 464 F.2d 689, 698 (2nd Cir. 1972), cert. denied, 409 U.S. 1039 (1972); see also In re Pennsylvania Truck Lines, Inc., 150 B.R. 595, 598 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1992) (holding that a bankruptcy court must consider these factors to see whether the settlement falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.) Accordingly, if the court finds the compromise does not fall below the threshold of reasonableness, the compromise should be approved. In re Planned Protective Services, Inc., 130 B.R. 94, 99 n.7 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1991).

This settlement resolves a plethora of issues that if fully adjudicated could take years and hundreds of thousands of dollars to resolve. As the Court is aware, there are twenty-five related debtor entities. The financials of the entities are not stellar. If the Trustees had to unwind and trace all assets back to the original/appropriate source, doing so would be costly and time consuming. Keeping the foregoing in mind, the Trustees propose this settlement to eliminate the time delays and costs associated with dividing assets and costs amongst the Estates. The Trustee believe the proposed settlement greatly reduces administrative costs while preserving assets for the benefit of the Estates.

WHEREFORE, the Trustee prays for an Order of this Court as follows:

A. Approving this Application;

B. Approving the proposals delineated on Exhibit A; and

C. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 23rd day of October, 2025.
