Richard A. Marshack, solely in his capacity as Trustee of the LPG Liquidation Trust, files this complaint against Choice Administrators Insurance Services, Inc., a California Corporation ("Defendant") and Does 1 through 20, inclusive, (collectively, "Doe Defendants"), and alleges as follows:

Statement of the Case

1. A bankruptcy trustee can avoid a debtor's preferential, fraudulent, and unauthorized post-petition transfers of property. In this case, Trustee alleges that Debtor's insiders ("LPG Insiders") established one or more entities, including Prime Logix, LLC ("Prime Logix"). The LPG Insiders then caused monies paid to and belonging to Debtor to be deposited in one or more accounts nominally titled in the name of Prime Logix. Such funds were not "transferred," as that term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54), to Prime Logix. Instead, the beneficial and equitable ownership of the funds always remained Debtor's property. The LPG Insiders took these actions to keep Debtor's cash outside the reach of creditors.

2. At least $162,182.92 of such funds belonging to Debtor were then transferred to Defendant from the accounts nominally titled with Prime Logix (collectively, the "Transfers"). Trustee alleges that some or all of the Transfers were then subsequently transferred by Defendant to one or more of the Doe Defendants. The Transfers to Defendant occurred during the four-year-period prior to the petition date, including certain sums transferred during the 90-day period prior to bankruptcy, and post-petition.

3. Under these facts, Trustee can avoid the Transfers and recover from Defendant as the "initial" transferee of such transfers and/or from Doe Defendants as "subsequent" transferees who did not take in good faith, for value, and without knowledge of the avoidability of such transfers. The Trustee alleges that neither the Defendant nor any of the Doe Defendants received the Transfers in good faith, for value, and without knowledge of their avoidability.

Statement of Jurisdiction and Venue

4. The Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 in that this action arises in and relates to the bankruptcy case pending in the

United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California, Santa Ana Division, entitled In re The Litigation Practice Group, P.C., Bankruptcy Case Number 8:23-bk-10571-SC.

5. Plaintiff has standing to bring this adversary proceeding pursuant to Provision V.E. of the Modified First Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation, confirmed by the Court on September 9, 2024, as Dk. No. 1646. The Plan provides that the estate's litigation claims, including avoidance claims, were transferred to the LPG Liquidating Trust. Plaintiff brings these claims on behalf of the Trust.

6. This adversary proceeding is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (B), (E), (F), (H), and (O), and this Court has Constitutional authority to enter a final judgment on these claims. To the extent any claim for relief contained herein is determined not to be a non-core proceeding or a Stern-claim, Plaintiff consents to the entry of final judgment and orders by the Bankruptcy Court.

7. Venue properly lies in the Central District of California in that this adversary proceeding arises in or is related to a case under Title 11 of the United State Code as provided in 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Parties

8. The Litigation Practice Group P.C. (previously defined as "Debtor") is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California, that had its principal place of business in Tustin, California. During all relevant times prior to bankruptcy, Daniel S. March ("Mr. March") was the Chief Executive Officer of Debtor.

9. On March 20, 2023 ("Petition Date"), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, initiating bankruptcy Case No. 8:23-bk-10571-SC ("Bankruptcy Case") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California, Santa Ana Division.

10. Richard A. Marshack (previously defined as "Trustee" or "Plaintiff") was the duly-appointed, qualified, and acting Chapter 11 Trustee for the Debtor's bankruptcy estate ("Estate"). Pursuant to the confirmed Plan, the Trustee now serves as Trustee of the LPG Liquidation Trust, which now owns all of the litigation claims, including the Estate's avoidance actions.

11. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times, Defendant was a domestic corporation formed and existing under the laws of the State of California. Defendant's address and/or principal place of business is 721 South Parker, Ste. 140, Orange, CA 92868.

12. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the Doe Defendants and, therefore, sues said defendants under such fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of such defendant(s) when they have been ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of the fictitiously named individuals and/or entities are responsible in some manner for the occurrences alleged herein and proximately caused Plaintiff's damages by their conduct. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that the fictitiously named defendants may constitute individuals, unknown trusts, partnerships, related entities, owners, principals, shareholders, insiders, alter egos, co-conspirators, and aiders and abettors that: (a) received transfers from Debtor and/or Prime Logix as an initial, immediate, or mediate transferee; (b) received transfers from Defendant as a mediate transferee; (c) directed or controlled Defendant's conduct and, as such, were responsible in some manner for the occurrences alleged herein; and/or (c) were used to shield Debtor's assets from collection, levy or execution, and to otherwise, hinder, delay and defraud the Debtor and its creditors.

13. With Trustee's appointment, he was granted standing to commence and maintain claims and causes of action on behalf of the Debtor's Estate, including but not limited to, claims under sections 541, 542, 544, 547, 548, 549, 550, and 551 of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, "Recovery Claims").

14. On or around March 17, 2025, Plaintiff and Defendant executed an agreement ("Tolling Agreement") to toll and suspend any and all applicable statutes of limitations and statutes of periods of repose and laches ("Limitations") for a period through and including March 20, 2026 ("Tolling Period"), unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Plaintiff and Defendant, for any and all Recovery Claims or other claims which Debtor, the Estate, the Trust, or Trustee may have against Defendant and any applicable third parties.

15. On or around March 11, 2026, Plaintiff and Defendant executed an addendum to the Tolling Agreement ("Tolling Agreement Addendum") to extend the Tolling Period through and including June 30, 2026 (the "Extended Tolling Period").

General Allegations

A. The Bankruptcy Case

16. Pre-petition, Debtor was a law firm that provided consumer debt resolution services to more than 50,000 clients nationwide.

17. Tony Diab ("Mr. Diab") owned, operated, dominated and controlled Debtor.

18. On May 8, 2023, Trustee accepted his appointment as the Chapter 11 Trustee in the Bankruptcy Case. To the extent that Trustee was not appointed until after any of the events alleged in this Complaint, the allegations are based on information and belief. See Soo Park v. Thompson, 851 F.3d 910, 928 (9th Cir. 2017); Miller v. City of Los Angeles, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 198871, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 7, 2014); Mireskandari v. Daily Mail and General Trust PLC, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 194437, at *4 (C.D. Cal. July 31, 2013).

B. Fraudulent Entities

19. The consumers that retained Debtor to represent them would pay over a period of time via monthly ACH debits from their bank accounts. These monthly payments were intended to cover all legal services provided by Debtor to those consumers. These funds should have been deposited into an attorney-client IOLTA account until earned. Instead, these funds were never deposited into trust and were diverted to one or more entities created by Tony Diab ("Diab Entities") to receive Debtor's diverted property, other non-debtor entities, insiders, affiliates, marketing companies, co-conspirators, or otherwise spent on non-business, unnecessary, and lavish personal expenses which ultimately rendered the Debtor insolvent.

20. Through its legal representation of consumer clients, Debtor earned an unknown portion of consumer clients' retainer funds, which earnings gave Debtor the right to pay operating expenses from the earned funds.

21. Debtor's Ponzi scheme, commingling of funds, and establishment of various Diab Entities, some with multiple bank accounts, rendered it impracticable for the Trustee to confirm what portion of ACH pulls became earned retainer funds.

22. Mr. Diab has admitted, under penalty of perjury, that he operated the Debtor as a criminal enterprise, specifically, a Ponzi scheme. The Debtor's insolvency led to Mr. Diab and the Debtor improperly selling its stream of retainer payments, sometimes multiple times over, to "investors" in the scheme.

23. After the Debtor's scheme began to crumble, as all Ponzi schemes inevitably must, and the Debtor's creditors began to demand payment from the Debtor, the LPG Insiders concocted and enacted a plan to keep Debtor's interests in property outside the reach of creditors. Specifically, the LPG Insiders created one or more Diab Entities to hold Debtor's property.

24. These Diab Entities include but are not limited to Vulcan Consulting Group LLC, Coast Processing LLC dba LPG, Oakstone Law Group PC, Greyson Law Center PC, Maverick Management Group, LLC, and Prime Logix, LLC. Several of the Diab Entities purported to operate as debt relief law firms.

25. After the creation of these Diab Entities, many of Debtor's consumer clients were unlawfully "transferred" to one of the Diab Entities to receive legal services, which also led to related ACH receivables being improperly deposited into the accounts of such Diab Entities.

26. As Mr. Diab would obtain loans to or investments in LPG, such funds would also be deposited in the various Diab Entity accounts. Loans owed by, and investments in the Debtor, were often paid from the funds held by the Diab Entities.

27. In sum, Mr. Diab used the bank accounts of the various Diab Entities to hold Debtor money derived from ACH pulls drawn from the accounts of Debtor's consumer clients, lenders who were told and who believed that they were lending to Debtor, and/or investors who were told and who believed that they were investing in Debtor.

28. In the one-year prior to bankruptcy, Debtor's Statements of Financial Affairs confirm that Debtor received revenues totaling approximately $155 million in monthly ACH payments from its consumer clients.

29. Under applicable state and federal laws, ACH pulls from a consumer's bank account cannot occur until the party initiating the payments obtains the consumer's express written consent.

30. With respect to the ACH pulls, the consumer clients only consented to the Debtor initiating the payments from their accounts.

31. With respect to the ACH pulls, the funds were derived from Debtor's consumer clients who never consented to any law firm other than the Debtor representing them and from investors.

C. Ponzi Scheme

32. Mr. Diab's operation of the Debtor as a Ponzi scheme manifested itself in several ways involving the Debtor's stream of ACH receivables from its consumer clients and the funds loaned to and invested in Debtor by third party lenders and investors.

33. As noted above, Mr. Diab used the Diab Entities he controlled to keep millions of dollars of Debtor's money away from its creditors. The use of the Diab Entities also permitted him to operate, without oversight or detection, and to avoid payment disputes and complications.

34. Third parties that believed they were loaning money to the Debtor and/or investing in in the Debtor and its streams of receivables were paid from the funds paid by the Debtor's consumer clients so that they would be unaware of the Debtor's insolvency and to perpetuate the Ponzi scheme. Many of these "lenders" actually served as "investors," hoping for very high returns before "the music stopped."

35. The Debtor also paid certain outside attorneys for services rendered to old clients with the funds obtained from new clients, further perpetuating and facilitating the Ponzi scheme.

36. The Ponzi scheme also entailed the Debtor incurring debt and obligations that were virtually impossible to repay. Because the Debtor and its marketing affiliates received only incremental payments over time from Debtor's consumer clients, Debtor would sometimes purport to sell the future streams of payments made by its clients to raise additional cash. The same receivables were often-times bundled and sold multiple times over with no regard for the resulting repayment obligations incurred by the Debtor.

37. The Debtor would also at times work with marketing affiliates who would convince consumer debtors to sign retainer agreements with the Debtor in exchange for the affiliates' receipt of a portion of the future stream of payments.

38. The Debtor also obtained money from investors and merchant cash advance lenders at usurious rates and objectively unreasonable terms.

39. The Debtor knew it did not have the ability to repay its various creditors and, thus, the actions taken by the Debtor constituted a Ponzi scheme orchestrated for improper personal gain.

40. This Court has recognized that Debtor operated a Ponzi scheme by using funds provided by former investors to attract new investors hoping for very high returns. See Dk. No. 1545, fn. 5.

41. On April 16, 2025, in a separate adversary proceeding by the Trustee against Mr. Diab, the Trustee filed a Motion for Order Approving Stipulation Between Trustee of the LPG Liquidation Trust and Tony Diab ("Trustee's Stipulation with Diab"). See Marshack v. Diab et al, Adv. Case No. 8:23-ap-01046-SC, as Adv1046 Dk. No. 761.[1]

42. The Trustee's Stipulation with Diab includes a Declaration of Tony Diab attesting to certain facts. Adv1046 Dk. No. 761, Exhibit 1, Exhibit A.

43. On May 29, the Court entered an order approving the Trustee's Stipulation with Diab ("Diab Stipulation Order"). Adv1046 Dk. No. 776.

44. The Diab Stipulation Order provides that "Diab acknowledges and agrees that the Non-dischargeable Judgment [to be entered against him] is based upon his own fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, and willful and malicious injury to the Debtor including, but not limited to, Diab not requiring the Debtor to maintain client payments in trust, violating numerous federal and state consumer protection laws, and operating the Debtor as a Ponzi scheme." Adv1046 Dk. No. 776, ¶ 3.

45. The Ponzi Scheme Presumption establishes a debtor's "intent to defraud future undertakers [investors] from the mere fact that a debtor was running a Ponzi scheme." Merrill v. Abbott (In re Independent Clearing House Co.), 77 B.R. 843, 860 (D. Utah 1987). "Knowledge to a substantial certainty constitutes intent in the eyes of the law, cf. Restatement (Second) of Torts § 8A (1963 & 1964), and a debtor's knowledge that future investors will not be paid is sufficient to establish his actual intent to defraud them." Id. A trustee in bankruptcy is not required to show that an operator of a Ponzi scheme was subjectively aware his Ponzi scheme was destined to fail. In re EPD Inv. Co., LLC, 114 F.4th at 1153 (9th Cir. 2024).

46. "[I]f all the debtor receives in return for a transfer is the use of the defendant's money to run a Ponzi scheme, there is nothing in the bankruptcy estate for creditors to share." In re Independent Clearing House Co. 77 B.R. at 859. In such a situation, the use of the defendant's money cannot objectively be called "reasonably equivalent value." Id. Therefore, "[t]he trustee can avoid the transfers if they were preferential or fraudulent. Transfers to investors in a Ponzi scheme are preferential and fraudulent. Therefore, they constitute 'property of the estate,' and the trustee can recover them." Id. at 853 n.17 (citations omitted).

47. Based on the Ponzi Scheme presumption, the Court can presume that the Debtor had the actual intent to defraud investors within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1). Since the transfers by Debtor to third parties, including Defendants, were made with the intent to further the Ponzi scheme, the Debtor did not receive an objectively reasonable equivalent value for such transfers, and the Trustee can avoid any such transfers because they were preferential and/or fraudulent.

D. Prepetition Creditors and Lawsuits

48. Debtor's Schedule E/F, filed on April 4, 2023, as Dk. No. 33, lists: (a) 11 unsecured creditors with priority unsecured claims totaling $374,060.04; and (b) 58 nonpriority unsecured creditors with scheduled claims totaling $141,439,158.05.

49. The claims register in this Bankruptcy Case includes 2,554 proofs of claim, totaling in excess of $424 million of claims asserted against the Estate.

50. At least 14 UCC-1 statements were of record securing alleged debts of the Debtor as of the Petition Date. These statements either reflected secured liens against the Debtor's assets then owned or thereafter acquired or provided evidence of the assignment or sale of substantial portions of the Debtor's future income. They secured the repayment of the following claimed amounts that are currently known to Trustee and are allegedly owed by the Debtor: (a) $2,374,004.82 owed to Fundura Capital Group as evidenced by Proof of Claim No. 335 purportedly secured by a UCC statement filed on or about May 19, 2021; (b) approximately $15 million dollars owed to MNS Funding, LLC as evidenced by Proof of Claim No. 1060 purportedly secured by a UCC statement filed on or about May 28, 2021; (c) approximately $5,000,000 owed to Azzure Capital, LLC as evidenced by Proof of Claim No. 127 purportedly secured by a UCC statement filed on or about May 28, 2021; and (d) approximately $1.5 million dollars owed to Diverse Capital, LLC purportedly secured by UCC statements filed on or about September 15, 2021, and December 1, 2021.

51. Debtor's balance sheets for the 36 months ending December 31, 2021, show approximately $17,900,000 in total assets at its highest point in November 2021. This amount is significantly less than the $424 million of claims filed.

52. Debtor's Statement of Financial Affairs, filed on April 4, 2023, as Dk. No. 34, reflects 15 pending lawsuits against Debtor as of the Petition Date. The lawsuits date back to October 18, 2021 (Fundura v. The Litigation Practice Group P.C. et al., Supreme Court of New York Index No. 613192-2021) and are as recent as March 10, 2023 (Diverse Capital LLC v. The Litigation Practice Group P.C. et al., Supreme Court of New York Index No. 135614-2023).

E. Debtor's Insolvency

53. Debtor was insolvent when the Transfers occurred as evidenced by: (a) the 14 UCC-1 statements reflecting secured liens against the Debtor's owned and after-acquired assets and the assignment or sale of substantial portions of the Debtor's future income; (b) the priority and non-priority unsecured debt of nearly $142 million listed in Debtor's schedules; (c) the $424 million of creditor claims filed in this Bankruptcy Case; and (d) Debtor's balance sheets reflecting, at its highest point, $17.9 million of assets in November 2021.

54. Moreover, insolvency is presumed as a matter of law where, as in this Bankruptcy Case, the debtor operated a Ponzi scheme. See, e.g., Glob. Money Mgmt., L.P. v. McDonnold, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 128733, at *15 (S.D. Cal. Feb. 27, 2008) (concluding that "if a Ponzi scheme is proven, then the debtor is proven insolvent from the time of its inception").

F. The Subject Transfers

55. During the four-year period prior to the Petition Date, the transfers of interests of the Debtor in property were made to Defendant and/or the Doe Defendants in an amount to be proven at trial, but not less than $101,415.88 as set forth in the chart attached as Exhibit 1.

56. Post-petition, the transfers of interests of the Debtor in property were made to Defendant and/or the Doe Defendants in an amount to be proven at trial, but not less than $60,767.04 as set forth in the chart attached as Exhibit 2.

57. To the extent the Court determines that the $83,309.84 in Transfers made during the 90-day period prior to the Petition Date were made on account of antecedent debts owed by the Debtor, the Trustee alleges that such Transfers are avoidable under 11 U.S.C. § 547 (collectively, the "Preferential Transfers").

58. To the extent the Court determines that the $101,415.88 in Transfers made during the four-year period prior to the Petition Date were made: (a) with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud Debtor's creditors; and/or (b) without Debtor receiving reasonably equivalent value in exchange, the Trustee alleges that such Transfers are avoidable under 11 U.S.C. §§ 544 and 548 and under Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04 and 3439.05 (collectively, the "Fraudulent Transfers").

59. To the extent the Court determines that the $60,767.04 in Transfers made post-petition were not authorized under the Bankruptcy Code or by order of the United States Bankruptcy Court overseeing Debtor's bankruptcy case, the Trustee alleges that such Transfers are avoidable under 11 U.S.C. § 549 (collectively, the "Unauthorized Post-Petition Transfers").

60. Plaintiff alleges that Debtor was insolvent when the prepetition Transfers were made or became insolvent as a result of the prepetition Transfers.

61. Plaintiff alleges that Debtor did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for or in connection with the prepetition Transfers.

62. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550(a), Plaintiff is entitled to recover the Transfers or their value from Defendant and Doe Defendants as initial or subsequent transferees.

63. Under 11 U.S.C. § 551, avoided transfers are automatically preserved for the benefit of the Estate.

G. Due Diligence

64. On October 28, 2024, Plaintiff caused a letter to be mailed to Defendant ("First Letter") requesting documents and information to substantiate the Transfers, to assess the purpose of the Transfers, and to evaluate any potential defenses to Plaintiff's avoidance and recovery of the Transfers. Plaintiff received no response to the First Letter.

65. On February 14, 2025, Plaintiff caused a follow-up letter to be mailed to Defendant ("Second Letter") requesting the same documents and information sought in the First Letter. The Second Letter also attached a draft complaint that would be filed by Plaintiff against Defendant absent a response to the Second Letter from Defendant. Plaintiff received no response to the Second Letter.

66. Between February 2025 and March 2025, the parties exchanged documents and information.

67. On or around March 17, 2025, Plaintiff and Defendant executed the Tolling Agreement.

68. During the Tolling Period, Plaintiff's counsel contacted Defendant, requesting additional documents and information to substantiate the Transfers. Plaintiff received no documents or information that, upon Plaintiff's review, substantiated the Transfers and/or demonstrated facts supporting any applicable defense to Defendants' receipt of Transfers.

69. On or around March 11, 2026, Plaintiff and Defendant executed the Tolling Agreement Addendum.

70. Again, during the Extended Tolling Period, Plaintiff's counsel contacted Defendant's counsel, requesting documents and information to substantiate the Transfers. Plaintiff received no response to the follow-up communications from Defendant. Instead, on June 18, 2026, Plaintiff received correspondence from Blue Cross of California d/b/a Anthem Blue Cross ("Anthem," and the "Anthem Letter"), which implied that Defendant was a mere conduit of the funds constituting the Transfers. Plaintiff does not agree that Defendant was a mere conduit in this case because neither Defendant nor Anthem has provided evidence to show that Defendant was solely a pass-through fiduciary/conduit for Anthem. Further, the Anthem Letter neither addresses the various elements nor meets the challenging standard to prove such a defense.

71. Prior to filing this Complaint, Plaintiff's counsel conducted an electronic search of Debtor's paper files and accounting records, including Debtor's QuickBooks files, which records and files are now stored electronically. Plaintiff's search of the subject records and files revealed no apparent defenses to the alleged claims.

First Claim for Relief

Avoidance, Recovery, and Preservation of Preferential Transfer

11 U.S.C. §§ 547, 550, and 551

(Against all Defendants)

72. Plaintiff incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 71 and realleges these paragraphs as though set forth in full herein.

73. The Preferential Transfers were made within 90 days prior to the Petition Date.

74. To the extent the Court determines that Debtor owed an antecedent debt to Defendants, Plaintiff alleges that each of the Preferential Transfers are subject to avoidance as preferences..

75. The Preferential Transfers were of property of Debtor.

76. The Preferential Transfers were made at a time when Debtor was insolvent and/or rendered insolvent by virtue of said transfers.

77. Each of the Preferential Transfers made to Defendant enabled Defendant to receive more than it would have received in a hypothetical Chapter 7 case if: (a) such Preferential Transfers had not been made; and (b) Defendant received payment of such debt to the extent provided for by Title 11 of the United States Code.

78. The Preferential Transfers are avoidable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 547. Defendant has liability for all avoided Transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 550.

The Trustee may preserve all avoided Preferential Transfers from Defendant and/or Doe Defendants for the benefit of the Estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 551.

Second Claim for Relief

Avoidance, Preservation, and Recovery of Actual Fraudulent Transfer

11 U.S.C. §§ 544, 550, 551; Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(a)(1) and 3439.07

(Against all Defendants)

79. Plaintiff incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 71 and realleges these paragraphs as though set forth in full.

80. Under 11 U.S.C. § 544(b)(1), Plaintiff may avoid transfers of an interest of Debtor which are voidable under applicable law by an unsecured creditor of Debtor, including under California Civil Code § 3439.04(a)(1).

81. The Fraudulent Transfers were of property of Debtor.

82. The Fraudulent Transfers were made within four years of the Petition Date.

83. The Fraudulent Transfers were made with the actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud Debtor's creditors.

84. At the time each Fraudulent Transfer was made, Debtor was indebted to one or more creditors that held a claim against Debtor on the date of each Fraudulent Transfer and on the Petition Date.

85. Debtor had been sued or threatened with suit before some or all of the Fraudulent Transfers occurred.

86. Debtor incurred substantial debt shortly before or shortly after some or all of the Fraudulent Transfers occurred.

87. The LPG Insiders caused Debtor to abscond and delay the discovery of substantial assets of the Debtor pursuant to the diversion of Debtor's funds, client files, and assets to Diab Entities.

88. Debtor actively concealed its beneficial interest in the Fraudulent Transfers and made the payments to Defendants with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud other creditors of the Debtor.

89. Prime Logix, who benefitted from the receipt of funds improperly diverted away from Debtor, would be considered an insider under Cal. Civ. Code § 3439.04(b)(1).

90. Debtor received less than reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the Fraudulent Transfers. Defendant and/or Doe Defendants received at least $101,415.88 of property belonging to Debtor.

91. The Fraudulent Transfers were made at a time when Debtor was insolvent and/or rendered insolvent by virtue of said transfers.

92. The Fraudulent Transfers were made partially for the benefit of an insider of Debtor. The detriment of the Fraudulent Transfers accrued to Debtor, and Debtor received no direct or indirect benefit.

93. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant and/or Doe Defendants did not receive the Fraudulent Transfers in good faith, for value, and without knowledge of their avoidability.

94. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff may avoid the Fraudulent Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 544 and California Civil Code § 3439.04(a)(1).

95. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff may recover and preserve the Fraudulent Transfers from Defendant and/or Doe Defendants as the initial transferee or, alternatively, as the subsequent transferee for the benefit of the Estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 550 and 551, and Cal. Civ. Code § 3439.07.

Third Claim for Relief

Avoidance, Preservation, and Recovery of Constructive Fraudulent Transfer 11 U.S.C. §§ 544, 550, 551; Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(a)(2), 3439.05 and 3439.07 (Against all Defendants)

96. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 71 and realleges these paragraphs as though set forth in full herein.

97. Under 11 U.S.C. § 544(b)(1), Plaintiff may avoid transfers of an interest of Debtor which are voidable under applicable law by an unsecured creditor of Debtor, including under California Civil Code §§ 3439.04(a)(2) and 3439.05.

98. Debtor did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the funds diverted to Prime Logix.

99. Debtor did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the Fraudulent Transfers.

100. The Transfers were made at a time when Debtor was insolvent and/or rendered insolvent by virtue of said transfers.

101. At the time each Fraudulent Transfer was made, Debtor was engaged or was about to engage in a business or a transaction for which the remaining assets of Debtor were unreasonably small in relation to the business or transaction.

102. At the time each Fraudulent Transfer was made, Debtor intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed that Debtor would incur, debts beyond Debtor's ability to pay as they became due.

103. At the time each Fraudulent Transfer was made, Debtor was indebted to one or more creditors that held a claim against Debtor on the date of each Fraudulent Transfer and on the Petition Date.

104. Prime Logix, who benefitted from the receipt of funds improperly diverted away from Debtor, would be considered an insider under Cal. Civ. Code § 3439.04(b)(1).

105. The Fraudulent Transfers were made at a time when Debtor was insolvent and/or rendered insolvent by virtue of said transfers.

106. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant and/or Doe Defendants did not receive the Fraudulent Transfers in good faith, for value, and without knowledge of their avoidability.

107. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff may avoid the Fraudulent Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 544 and California Civil Code §§ 3439.04(a)(2) and 3439.05.

108. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff may recover and preserve the Fraudulent Transfers from Defendant and/or Doe Defendants as the initial transferee or, alternatively, as the subsequent transferee for the benefit of the Estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 550 and 551, and Cal. Civ. Code § 3439.07.

Fourth Claim for Relief

Avoidance, Preservation, and Recovery of Actual Fraudulent Transfer

11 U.S.C. §§ 548(a)(1)(A), 550 & 551

(Against all Defendants)

109. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 71 and realleges these paragraphs as though set forth in full herein.

110. One or more of the Fraudulent Transfers were made within two years of the Petition Date.

111. The Fraudulent Transfers were made to Defendants with the actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud Debtor's creditors.

112. At the time each Fraudulent Transfer was made, Debtor was indebted to one or more creditors that held a claim against Debtor on the date of each Fraudulent Transfer and on the Petition Date.

113. Debtor had been sued or threatened with suit before some or all of the Fraudulent Transfers occurred.

114. Debtor incurred substantial debt shortly before or shortly after some or all of the Fraudulent Transfers occurred.

115. The LPG Insiders caused Debtor to abscond and delay the discovery of substantial assets of the Debtor pursuant to the diversion of Debtor's funds, client files, and assets to Diab Entities.

116. The LPG Insiders actively concealed Debtor's assets pursuant to the diversion of funds, client files, and assets to Diab Entities.

117. Prime Logix, who benefitted from the receipt of funds improperly diverted away from Debtor, would be considered an insider as that term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(31).

118. Debtor received less than reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the Fraudulent Transfers totaling $101,415.88.

119. The Fraudulent Transfers were made at a time when Debtor was insolvent and/or rendered insolvent by virtue of said transfers.

120. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant and/or Doe Defendants did not receive the Fraudulent Transfers in good faith, for value, and without knowledge of their avoidability.

121. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff may avoid the Fraudulent Transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(A).

122. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff may recover and preserve the avoided transfers up to the amount of the Fraudulent Transfers from Defendant and/or Doe Defendants as the initial transferee or, alternatively, as the subsequent transferee for the benefit of the Estate under 11 U.S.C. §§ 550 and 551.

Fifth Claim for Relief

Avoidance, Preservation, and Recovery of Constructive Fraudulent Transfer

11 U.S.C. §§ 548(a)(1)(B), 550 & 551

(Against all Defendants)

123. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 71 and realleges these paragraphs as though set forth in full herein.

124. One or more of the Fraudulent Transfers were made within two years before the Petition Date.

125. Debtor did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the Fraudulent Transfers.

126. The Fraudulent Transfers were made at a time when Debtor was insolvent and/or rendered insolvent by virtue of said transfers.

127. When the Fraudulent Transfers occurred, Debtor's business was undercapitalized and Debtor was engaged in business for which its capital was unreasonably small.

128. When the Fraudulent Transfers occurred, Debtor was about to incur debts that were beyond its ability to pay.

129. The Fraudulent Transfers were made for the benefit of Defendants and Prime Logix, which was an insider of Debtor.

130. At the time each Fraudulent Transfer was made, Debtor was indebted to one or more creditors that held a claim against Debtor on the date of each Fraudulent Transfer and on the Petition Date.

131. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant and/or Doe Defendants did not receive the Fraudulent Transfers in good faith, for value, and without knowledge of their avoidability.

132. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff may avoid the Fraudulent Transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(B).

133. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff may recover and preserve the avoided Fraudulent Transfers from Defendant and Doe Defendants as the initial transferee or, alternatively, as the subsequent transferee for the benefit of the Estate under 11 U.S.C. §§ 550 and 551.

Sixth Claim for Relief

Avoidance, Recovery, and Preservation of Unauthorized Post-Petition Transfer 11 U.S.C. §§ 549, 550, and 551

(Against all Defendants)

134. Plaintiff incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 71 and realleges these paragraphs as though set forth in full herein.

135. The Unauthorized Post-Petition Transfers were made on or after March 20, 2023.

136. The Unauthorized Post-Petition Transfers were not authorized pursuant to Title 11 of the United States Code or by order of the United States Bankruptcy Court overseeing Debtor's bankruptcy case.

137. The Unauthorized Post-Petition Transfers were of property of Debtor.

138. The Unauthorized Post-Petition Transfers are avoidable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 549. Defendant has liability for all avoided Transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 550.

139. The Trustee may preserve all avoided Unauthorized Post-Petition Transfers from Defendant and/or Doe Defendants for the benefit of the Estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 551.

Seventh Claim for Relief

Disallowance of Claim

11 U.S.C. § 502(d)

(Against all Defendants)

140. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 71 and realleges these paragraphs as though set forth in full herein.

141. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant and/or Doe Defendants may have a claim against the Estate.

142. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(d), Plaintiff requests that any claim asserted by Defendant and/or Doe Defendants be disallowed unless or until the avoidable Transfers are repaid by Defendant and/or Doe Defendants.

Prayer

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant and Doe Defendants as follows:

On the First Claim for Relief

1. That the Preferential Transfers be avoided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 547(b);

2. That Plaintiff recover the avoided Preferential Transfers or a money judgment in an amount equal to the value of the avoided Preferential Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550;

On the Second Claim for Relief

3. That the Fraudulent Transfers be avoided under 11 U.S.C. § 544 and Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(a)(1) and 3439.07;

4. That Plaintiff recover the avoided Fraudulent Transfers or a money judgment in an amount equal to the value of the avoided Fraudulent Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550;

On the Third Claim for Relief

5. That the Fraudulent Transfers be avoided under 11 U.S.C. § 544 and Cal. Civ. Code §§ 3439.04(a)(2), 3439.05 and 3439.07;

6. That Plaintiff recover the avoided Fraudulent Transfers or a money judgment in an amount equal to the value of the avoided Fraudulent Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550;

On the Fourth Claim for Relief

7. That the Fraudulent Transfers be avoided under 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(A);

8. That Plaintiff recover the avoided Fraudulent Transfers or a money judgment in an amount equal to the value of the avoided Fraudulent Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550;

On the Fifth Claim for Relief

9. That the Fraudulent Transfers be avoided under 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(B);

10. That Plaintiff recover the avoided Fraudulent Transfers or a money judgment in an amount equal to the value of the avoided Fraudulent Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550;

11. That the Unauthorized Post-Petition Transfers be avoided under 11 U.S.C. § 549;

12. That Plaintiff recover the avoided Unauthorized Post-Petition Transfers or a money judgment in an amount equal to the value of the avoided Unauthorized Post-Petition Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550;

On the Seventh Claim for Relief

13. That any claim of Defendant and/or Doe Defendants against the Estate be disallowed in its entirety unless or until Defendant and/or Doe Defendants timely repay the avoidable Transfers;

On All Claims for Relief

14. That Plaintiff only recover a single satisfaction of all avoided Transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 550(d);

15. That all avoided Transfers be preserved pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 551;

16. For prejudgment interest under state law on all fraudulent transfer claims from the date each transfer was made, as set forth in In re Slatkin, 525 F.3d 805, 820 (9th Cir.2008), In re Agricultural Research and Technology Group, Inc., 916 F.2d 528, 541-42 (9th Cir.1990), and Field v. Kepoikai (In re Maui Indus. Loan & Fin. Co.), 483 B.R. 346, 353 (Bankr. D. Haw. 2012);

17. For pre-judgment interest on all other claims at the maximum rate allowed by law;

18. For costs incurred by Plaintiff in prosecuting this action; and

19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

INSTRUCTIONS

The filing of a bankruptcy case creates an "estate" under the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court which consists of all of the property of the debtor, wherever that property is located. Because the bankruptcy estate is so extensive and the jurisdiction of the court so broad, there may be lawsuits over the property or property rights of the estate. There also may be lawsuits concerning the debtor's discharge. If such a lawsuit is filed in a bankruptcy court, it is called an adversary proceeding.

A party filing an adversary proceeding must also must complete and file Form 1040, the Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet, unless the party files the adversary proceeding electronically through the court's Case Management/Electronic Case Filing system (CM/ECF). (CM/ECF captures the information on Form 1040 as part of the filing process.) When completed, the cover sheet summarizes basic information on the adversary proceeding. The clerk of court needs the information to process the adversary proceeding and prepare required statistical reports on court activity.

The cover sheet and the information contained on it do not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law, the Bankruptcy Rules, or the local rules of court. The cover sheet, which is largely self-explanatory, must be completed by the plaintiff's attorney (or by the plaintiff if the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney). A separate cover sheet must be submitted to the clerk for each complaint filed.

Plaintiffs and Defendants. Give the names of the plaintiffs and defendants exactly as they appear on the complaint.

Attorneys. Give the names and addresses of the attorneys, if known.

Party. Check the most appropriate box in the first column for the plaintiffs and the second column for the defendants.

Demand. Enter the dollar amount being demanded in the complaint.

Signature. This cover sheet must be signed by the attorney of record in the box on the second page of the form. If the plaintiff is represented by a law firm, a member of the firm must sign. If the plaintiff is pro se, that is, not represented by an attorney, the plaintiff must sign.
