JURY TRIAL DEMANDED
JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

INTRODUCTION
INTRODUCTION

1. Ironleaf Capital, L.P. ("Plaintiff"), by and through its undersigned counsel, brings this action against defendant Ironleaf Equity Partners LLC ("Defendant") to stop its infringing use of Plaintiff's IRONLEAF trademark, which is registered with the USPTO for "private equity fund investment services" and other services. (U.S. Reg. No. 8,277,503). Defendant is using IRONLEAF as a trademark for private equity services in direct violation of Plaintiff's earlier trademark rights.

1. Ironleaf Capital, L.P. ("Plaintiff"), by and through its undersigned counsel, brings this action against defendant Ironleaf Equity Partners LLC ("Defendant") to stop its infringing use of Plaintiff's IRONLEAF trademark, which is registered with the USPTO for "private equity fund investment services" and other services. (U.S. Reg. No. 8,277,503). Defendant is using IRONLEAF as a trademark for private equity services in direct violation of Plaintiff's earlier trademark rights.

THE PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Ironleaf Capital, L.P. is a limited partnership organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, with a place of business in New York, New York. Plaintiff operates a private equity fund under the trademarks IRONLEAF and IRONLEAF CAPITAL. Plaintiff's website can be found at <www.ironleafcapital.com>.

THE PARTIES

3. Plaintiff has a principal place of business at 142 W. 57th Street, Floor 9, New York, New York 10019.

4. Defendant Ironleaf Equity Partners LLC is a limited liability company also organized under the laws of the State of Delaware.

5. Defendant also operates a private equity fund and markets its services to investors from a website at <www.ironleafequitypartners.com>.

6. On information and belief, Defendant's primary activities take place in the areas of Seattle and Tacoma, Washington. On information and belief, Keelan Flowers, Defendant's first co-founder and member, is believed to be a resident of Federal Way, Washington; and Eric Frank, Defendant's second co-founder and member, is believed to be a resident of Tacoma, Washington.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. This is an action for infringement of federally registered trademarks in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1); unregistered trademarks and unfair competition in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 125(a); and other state law violations as set forth below.

8. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff's federal claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338. The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367 because these claims are joined with substantial and related claims under the laws of the United States, and they are so related to claims in the action within such original jurisdiction that they form part of the same case or controversy or derive from a common nucleus of operative facts.

9. The exercise of personal jurisdiction by the Court over Defendants is appropriate in accordance with the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

10. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant is operating in the state of Washington and in this District. Defendant also operates an Internet appropriate in accordance with the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

10. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant is operating in the state of Washington and in this District. Defendant also operates an Internet website at www.ironleafequitypartners.com that is accessible by and targets residents of this District.

11. Defendant has purposefully availed itself of the benefits of doing business in Washington by transacting business with investors in Washington. In undertaking these deliberate acts, including all facts and allegations set forth below, which are incorporated herein by reference, Defendants had fair warning and could reasonably anticipate that they could be called before a federal district court in Washington.

12. Venue is proper in the Western District of Washington pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because Defendant does business in this District, the claims arose in this District, and a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims occurred in this District. Moreover, Defendant transacts business in this District, has committed infringing acts in this District, and has engaged in activities that subject Defendant to the jurisdiction of this Court. Finally, because Defendant is subject to personal jurisdiction in this District, venue is appropriate in this District.
