II. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

1. The basis for federal court jurisdiction is a federal question.

2. A. The federal statutes at issue are the Fair Credit Reporting Act, including 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681e(b), 1681i(a), 1681i(a)(2), 1681i(a)(5), 1681i(a)(6), and 1681i(a)(7).

III. STATEMENT OF CLAIM

3. I reviewed my consumer reports from Equifax Information Services LLC, Experian Information Solutions, Inc., and TransUnion LLC and found inaccurate and inconsistent information appearing across all three reports. I disputed these inaccuracies through each Defendant's online dispute portal, but each Defendant failed to conduct a reasonable reinvestigation as required by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681i(a), 1681i(a)(1), 1681i(a)(2), 1681i(a)(6), and 1681i(a)(7), and failed to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy under 15 U.S.C. § 1681e(b). Copies of my consumer reports, disputes, and the Defendants' responses or failures to respond are attached as Exhibits A, B, and C. I also escalated the matter to the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and the South Dakota Attorney General; both agencies issued written responses showing that the Defendants refused to correct inaccurate information despite administrative intervention, which are attached as Exhibit D. As a result of these failures, inaccurate information remained on my consumer reports, causing denial of credit, damage to my creditworthiness, emotional distress, and other actual harm.

IV. RELIEF

4. I request actual damages under 15 U.S.C. § 1681o, statutory damages under 15 U.S.C. § 1681n, punitive damages where permitted under 15 U.S.C. § 1681n(a)(2), costs of the action, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper. The inaccurate reporting and failed reinvestigations caused denial of credit, damage to my creditworthiness, emotional distress, and other actual harm. I had to pursue litigation after unsuccessful attempts to resolve the matter through the Defendants, the CFPB, and the South Dakota Attorney General.

The defendant, (name) _____, is a citizen of the State of (name) _____. Or is a citizen of (foreign nation) _____.

b. If the defendant is a corporation

The defendant, (name) _____, is incorporated under the laws of the State of (name) _____, and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) _____. Or is incorporated under the laws of (foreign nation) _____, and has its principal place of business in (name) _____.

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy–the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake–is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

I reviewed my consumer reports from Equifax Information Services LLC, Experian Information Solutions, Inc., and TransUnion LLC and found inaccurate and inconsistent information appearing across all three reports. I disputed these inaccuracies through each Defendant's online dispute portal, but each Defendant failed to conduct a reasonable reinvestigation as required by 15 U.S.C. §§1681i(a), 1681i(a)(1), 1681i(a)(2), 1681i(a)(6), and 1681i(a)(7), and failed to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy under 15 U.S.C. §1681e(b). Copies of my consumer reports, disputes, and the Defendants' responses or failures to respond are attached as Exhibits A, B, and C. I also escalated the matter to the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and the South Dakota Attorney General; both agencies issued written responses showing that the Defendants refused to correct inaccurate information despite administrative intervention, which are attached as Exhibit D. As a result of these failures, inaccurate information remained on my consumer reports, causing denial of credit, damage to my creditworthiness, emotional distress, and other actual harm.

V. CERTIFICATION AND CLOSING

IV. Relief

A. For Parties Without an Attorney

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

I request actual damages under 15 U.S.C. §1681o, statutory damages under 15 U.S.C. §1681n, punitive damages where permitted under 15 U.S.C. §1681n(a)(2), costs of the action, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper. The inaccurate reporting and failed reinvestigations continue to cause ongoing harm, including continued damage to my creditworthiness and the need to pursue litigation after unsuccessful attempts to resolve the matter through the Defendants, the CFPB, and the South Dakota Attorney General.
