BACKGROUND FACTS

14. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a Program Supervisor from on or about April 29, 2024, to on or about March 27, 2026.

15. Plaintiff is an African American man.

16. Plaintiff is a member of a protected class due to his race (African American).

17. Plaintiff is a member of a protected class due to his sex (male).

18. Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Plaintiff performed the duties of his position and met Defendant's legitimate business expectations.

19. Throughout Plaintiff's tenure, Plaintiff's direct manager, Cynthia Scott ("Scott"), subjected Plaintiff to ongoing harassment, hostility, and abusive treatment.

20. Cynthia Scott is a Puerto Rican woman.

21. During Plaintiff's employment, Scott regularly communicated with Plaintiff in an aggressive, hostile, and abusive manner.

22. Despite the discriminatory treatment he experienced, Plaintiff remained employed because he had children and family obligations requiring him to maintain stable employment.

23. On one occasion, Plaintiff's grandmother passed away while Plaintiff was at work.

24. Scott was scheduled to relieve Plaintiff at work so Plaintiff could leave due to this family emergency.

25. Plaintiff contacted Scott to notify her of the emergency and to inquire regarding relief coverage.

26. In response, Scott stated to Plaintiff, "Stop calling me, I'll get there when I get there."

27. On another occasion, Plaintiff was scheduled to take a work break in accordance with Defendant's workplace policies.

28. When Plaintiff prepared to leave the work floor for his scheduled break, Scott demanded that Plaintiff remain working on the floor.

29. Scott then yelled at Plaintiff, stating, "Get back on the [profanity] floor, don't leave the floor, I'll relieve you if I want to."

30. Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Scott frequently directed profanity, hostility, and abusive language toward Plaintiff.

31. On multiple occasions, Scott referred to Plaintiff using derogatory and demeaning gender-based language, including calling Plaintiff a "bitch."

32. Scott did not treat those outside of Plaintiff's protected class (non-African American and non-male) in this same manner.

33. Plaintiff reported Scott's ongoing harassment and discriminatory conduct to Scott's supervisor, Sergio (LNU).

34. Plaintiff informed Sergio, Plaintiff's supervisor, that Scott was subjecting Plaintiff to abusive and discriminatory treatment in the workplace, thereby engaging in protected activity.

35. Despite Plaintiff's complaint, Sergio failed to investigate Plaintiff's concerns or take corrective action.

36. Defendant's Assistant Manager, Richard Cruzan, also personally witnessed the hostile and abusive treatment Scott directed toward Plaintiff.

37. Despite management's awareness of Scott's conduct, Defendant failed to intervene or take action to stop the harassment.

38. Following Sergio's departure from Defendant's management team, Jose A. (LNU) became Scott's direct supervisor.

39. Plaintiff subsequently reported Scott's conduct to Jose.

40. Despite receiving Plaintiff's complaint, Jose likewise failed to investigate Plaintiff's concerns or take corrective action.

41. As a result of the ongoing harassment, discriminatory treatment, and Defendant's repeated failure to address Plaintiff's complaints, Plaintiff ultimately decided he could no longer continue working under such conditions, as no reasonable person could have continued working under these circumstances.

42. Plaintiff thereafter submitted his two-week notice of resignation.

43. In effect, Plaintiff was constructively discharged.

44. On or about November 16, 2023, Plaintiff reported to work for his final day of employment.

45. On that date, Plaintiff attempted to return the building key to Scott as part of the separation process.

46. Upon receiving the key, Scott became verbally aggressive toward Plaintiff and began yelling and cursing at him.

47. During this confrontation, Scott repeatedly referred to Plaintiff using a racial slur and a gendered epithet, "[racial slur and gendered epithet omitted]."

48. Scott directed this racial slur toward Plaintiff multiple times during the confrontation.

49. The use of this aggressive language and racial slur confirmed that Scott's treatment of Plaintiff was due to racial and gendered animus.

50. Mr. Cruzan witnessed Scott's actions and slurs directed at Plaintiff.

51. Rather than disciplining Scott, Mr. Cruzan instructed Plaintiff to leave the workplace immediately.

52. After Plaintiff returned home, Scott sent Plaintiff a text message in which she again referred to Plaintiff as a "[racial slur and gendered epithet omitted]."

53. In sending this message, Scott's discrimination and harassment of Plaintiff extended past Plaintiff's employment with Defendant.

61. Plaintiff met or exceeded performance expectations throughout the duration of his employment with Defendant as evidenced by the lack of writeups/ negative performance remarks in his personnel file.

62. Plaintiff can show that he engaged in statutorily protected activity – a necessary component of his retaliation claim- because Plaintiff made verbal and written complaints of race-based and sex-based discrimination and harassment.

63. Defendant's discrimination, harassment, and retaliation against Plaintiff, coupled with Defendant's termination of Plaintiff, took a heavy mental toll on Plaintiff, who suffered and continues to suffer severe mental anguish and distress.
