IN RE: JTM2 HOLDINGS, LLC, Debtor.	Case No. 24-11105-SMR Chapter 7 Adv. Pro. No. _____
RANDOLPH N. OSHEROW, CHAPTER 7 TRUSTEE, Plaintiff, v. TUCKER MAX, Defendant.	Adv. Pro. No. _____

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Randolph N. Osherow, in his capacity as Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee" or "Plaintiff") of JTM2 Holdings, LLC ("Debtor" or "JTM2"), by and through the undersigned counsel, hereby files this Complaint ("Complaint") against Defendant Tucker Max ("Defendant" or "Max") and respectfully alleges as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant to avoid and recover certain fraudulent transfers that occurred during the two-year period prior to the commencement of Debtor's bankruptcy case and to recover damages for breach of fiduciary duty and for equitable subordination, all arising from the redemption of Defendant's ownership interest in the Debtor and related conduct while Defendant was a member, manager, and shareholder of the Debtor.

2. As the Debtor's financial condition declined, Defendant negotiated and executed the Agreement giving rise to the Transfer, effectively stripping all value from the Debtor and saddling it with millions of dollars of debt, for his own benefit despite his fiduciary duties to the Debtor. Defendant's actions caused the Debtor to suffer significant damages, including an increase in its liabilities and a depletion of its assets, thus contributing to the Debtor's decline into bankruptcy. The net result of the transactions was that the Debtor's liability to Max subordination, all arising from the redemption of Defendant's ownership interest in the Debtor and increased significantly, to the detriment of the Estate and its creditors. Accordingly, the Trustee related conduct while Defendant was a member, manager, and shareholder of the Debtor. now files this action to avoid the fraudulent transfers, recover damages for breach of fiduciary

IV. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Debtor's Business and Ownership Structure Prior to the Transfer

10. On July 31, 2020, Max, Zach Obront ("Obront"), and Jevon McCormick ("McCormick") formed JTZ Holdings, LLC to, among other things, serve as a holding company for various subsidiaries, including Scribe Media, LLC ("Scribe Media"), the Debtor's only revenue-generating entity. Effective May 24, 2022, JTZ Holdings, LLC formally changed its

10. Following the exchange, the Debtor owned 100% of the outstanding equity redeemed by the respective companies. First, effective January 1, 2022, Obront exchanged his interest in Scribe Media, and McCormick, Max, and Obront held the following ownership shares in the Debtor for ownership shares in Scribe Media. As a result of this transaction, repossessed by the Internal Revenue Service). Scribe Media used falsified financial statements and projections to secure certain investments in Scribe Media and JTM2 and, thereafter, continued to make a series of misrepresentations in efforts to obtain more investors.

19. At all relevant times, Defendant—as member, manager, and shareholder of the Debtor—knew or should have known of the Debtor's operating losses and declining financial condition.

formally resigning from any management position with the Debtor effective that date and making his only connection with the Debtor that of a significant creditor.

20. Notwithstanding JTM2's dwindling financial condition, Max and McCormick—as owners of the Debtor—negotiated for the redemption of Max's JTM2 Shares. Ultimately, Max entered into that certain Share Redemption Agreement (the "Agreement") with JTM2, effective January 11, 2023. Pursuant to the Agreement, JTM2 was to redeem Max's JTM2 Shares (which effectively had no value) in exchange for four installment payments totaling $6,125,000.

21. Additionally, on January 11, 2023, Max executed his Notice of Resignation, formally resigning from any management position with the Debtor effective that date and making his only connection with the Debtor that of a significant creditor.

22. On or about January 11, 2023, Debtor paid the first installment pursuant to the Agreement in the amount of $750,000 (the "Transfer") to Max. The Debtor failed to make the three remaining payments due under the Agreement as a result of the Debtor's continuously deteriorating financial condition.

23. On December 10, 2024, Max filed proof of claim 32-1 in the Bankruptcy Case, asserting an unsecured claim in the amount of $5,375,000. See Claims Register, Claim #32-1.

C. The Bankruptcy

20. On September 9, 2024 ("Petition Date"), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby commencing the Bankruptcy Case.

21. Plaintiff was subsequently appointed as the Chapter 7 Trustee.

22. But for the Transfer being made, the funds transferred to Max would have been property of the Estate.

24. On February 21, 2025, the Trustee sent a demand letter to Max requesting return of the Transfer as a fraudulent conveyance, but Max refused to return the funds.

41. Debtor did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for entering into the Agreement and incurring the obligations described therein.

V. CAUSES OF ACTION

A. Count I: Avoidance of Fraudulent Transfer Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(B)

25. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each of the preceding paragraphs.

26. Plaintiff intends to avoid all transfers and obligations that may be avoided and recovered from Defendant under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code whether identified in this Complaint or which may be learned of in the course of discovery.

27. The Transfer consisted of money in which the Debtor held a property interest.

28. The Transfer was made within the two (2) years prior to the Petition Date.

29. The Transfer was made to, or for the benefit of, the Defendant.

30. Debtor did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the Transfer.

31. The Debtor: (a) was insolvent on the date of the Transfer or became insolvent as a result of the Transfer, (b) engaged, or was about to engage, in business or a transaction for which any property remaining with the Debtor was an unreasonably small capital at the time of, or as a result of, entering into the Agreement (and incurring the obligations therein), and/or (c) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts that would be beyond Debtor's ability to pay as such debts matured.

43. By reason of the foregoing, the Agreement (and the obligations incurred therein) should be avoided and set aside as a fraudulent transfer or obligation under section 548(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.

C. Count III: Avoidance of Fraudulent Transfer Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 544(b) and Tex. Bus. & Com. Code §§ 24.005(a)(2) and 24.006.

44. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each of the preceding paragraphs.

45. Pursuant to section 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, a trustee may avoid, inter alia, any transfer of an interest of the debtor in property that is avoidable under applicable law by a creditor holding an allowable claim that is allowable under section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code.

32. By reason of the foregoing, the Transfer should be avoided and set aside as a fraudulent transfer under section 548(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Count II: Avoidance of Agreement that is Voidable under Section 548(a)(1)(B)

33. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each of the preceding paragraphs.

46. The Transfer consisted of money in which the Debtor held a property interest.

34. The Agreement consists of contractual rights in which the Debtor held a property interest and contractual obligations incurred by the Debtor.

47. The Transfer was made within two (2) years before the Petition Date.

48. Debtor did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the Transfer.

35. The Agreement was entered into within the two (2) years prior to the Petition Date.

49. At the time the Transfer was made, the Debtor was engaged in business or was about to engage in a business or a transaction, for which the remaining assets of the Debtor were unreasonably small in relation to their business or transaction, or (b) intended to incur, or believed

36. The Agreement was executed for the benefit of the Defendant, and the obligations therein were incurred for the benefit of the Defendant.

G. Count VII – Disallowance of All Claims Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(d) and (j).

47. Thus, the Transfer, or the value thereof, should be preserved for the benefit of the Plaintiff pursuant to section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code.

F. Count VI: Recovery of Avoided Transfer Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550

48. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each of the preceding paragraphs.

49. Pursuant to section 550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendant the Transfer, plus interest thereon to the date of payment the costs of this action.

G. Count VII: Disallowance of All Claims Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(d) and (j)

50. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each of the preceding paragraphs.

51. Pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, any and all claims of Defendant, and/or its assignee, against the Estate or Plaintiff must be disallowed until such time as Defendant pays to Plaintiff an amount equal to the amount of the Transfer, plus interest thereon and costs.

H. Count VIII: Breach of Fiduciary Duty

52. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each of the preceding paragraphs.

53. Defendant, as member, manager, and shareholder of the Debtor, owed fiduciary duties to the Debtor. These fiduciary obligations included, but were not limited to, the duties of loyalty, care, and good faith, and the obligation to refrain from self-dealing and to act in the best interests of the Debtor and its creditors.

54. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendant damages caused by the Defendant's breach of his fiduciary duties.

I. Count IX: Equitable Subordination Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 510(c)(1) and 105(a)

55. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each of the preceding paragraphs.

56. Defendant's negotiation and execution of the Agreement giving rise to the Transfer that depleted the Debtor's assets, as a member and manager of the Debtor, constitutes inequitable conduct and caused the Debtor and the Estate to suffer significant damages and contributed to the Debtor's decline into bankruptcy.

57. Thus, Defendant's claims should be subordinated to the claims of all general unsecured creditors for purposes of distribution.

b) avoiding the Agreement pursuant to sections 544 and/or 548 of the Bankruptcy Code;

c) preserving the avoided Transfer for the benefit of the Estate and Plaintiff or the value thereof pursuant to section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code;

d) awarding damages in an amount to be determined at trial for Defendant's breach of his fiduciary duties;

e) directing Defendant to pay to Plaintiff an amount to be determined at trial that is not less than $750,000.00, plus interest and costs, pursuant to section 550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code;

f) subordinating all Defendant's claims in the Bankruptcy Case to the claims of all general unsecured creditors;

g) awarding pre-judgment interest at the maximum legal rate running from the date of the Plaintiff's first demand to return the Transfer to the date of judgment with respect to this Complaint;

h) awarding post-judgment interest at the maximum legal rate running from the date of entry of the judgment until the date the judgment is satisfied, plus costs; and

i) granting Plaintiff such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

VI. RELIEF REQUESTED

58. WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment against Defendant as follows:

(a) avoiding the Transfer pursuant to sections 544 and/or 548 of the Bankruptcy Code;

(b) avoiding the Agreement pursuant to sections 544 and/or 548 of the Bankruptcy Code;

(c) preserving the avoided Transfer for the benefit of the Estate and Plaintiff or the value thereof pursuant to section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code;

(d) awarding damages in an amount to be determined at trial for Defendant's breach of his fiduciary duties;

(e) directing Defendant to pay to Plaintiff an amount to be determined at trial that is not less than $750,000.00, plus interest and costs, pursuant to section 550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(f) subordinating all Defendant's claims in the Bankruptcy Case to the claims of all general unsecured creditors;

(g) awarding pre-judgment interest at the maximum legal rate running from the date of the Plaintiff's first demand to return the Transfer to the date of judgment with respect to this Complaint;

(h) awarding post-judgment interest at the maximum legal rate running from the date of entry of the judgment until the date the judgment is satisfied, plus costs; and

(i) granting Plaintiff such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
