On September 2, 2021, for consideration received, Sturm Cosmetic Surgery, P.C., a professional corporation ("SCS") owned 100% by Lindsay Sturm, executed a Promissory Note in favor of Plaintiff in the principal amount of $1,150,000.00 ("Note"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Note superseded and replaced a prior Promissory Note executed by SCS in favor of Plaintiff on February 5, 2019 in the principal amount of $400,000.00 ("Prior Note"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

8. On February 5, 2019, SCS executed a Commercial Security Agreement in favor of Plaintiff ("Security Agreement"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit C, wherein, among other things, SCS granted Plaintiff a security interest in all of SCS' inventory, equipment, accounts, deposit accounts, furniture, fixtures and supplies. The Security Agreement contained a Future Advances clause which provided that all future advances made by Plaintiff to SCS were also secured. The Security Agreement states, under the caption Transactions Involving Collateral:

> "Except for inventory sold or accounts collected in the ordinary course of Grantor's business, or as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, Grantor shall not sell, or otherwise transfer or dispose of the Collateral...Unless waived by Lender, all proceeds from any disposition of the Collateral (for whatever reason) shall be held in trust for Lender and shall not be comingled with any other funds; provided however, this requirement shall not constitute consent by Lender to any sale or other disposition. Upon receipt, Grantor shall immediately deliver any such proceeds to Lender."
