9. On February 28, 2025, the Trustee was appointed as the Chapter 7 Trustee of the bankruptcy estate of the Debtor.

10. The Debtor's financial records indicate that within ninety (90) days before the Petition Date (the "Preference Period"), the Debtor made the following payments to the Defendant totaling $109,602.63 (the "Preference Payments"):

Transfer Date	Check No./Wire	Amount

14. Based on the Trustee's review of proofs of claim filed against the Debtor's estate, the Debtor's books and records, and other documents and information available to the Trustee and his accountants, the Trustee believes that the Defendant has only a partial defense to recovery. Specifically, the Trustee believes that any new value provided by the Defendant to the Debtor only limits the Defendant's exposure and does not provide a total defense to the avoidance and recovery of the Preference Payments.

COUNT I

(Avoidance and Recovery of the Preference Payments)

15. The Trustee incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth above as if fully recited herein.

16. The Trustee has conducted reasonable due diligence concerning the avoidance and recovery of the Preference Payments from the Defendant.

19. The Preference Payments were made for or on account of an antecedent debt owed by the Debtor to the Defendant before such payment was made.

20. The Preference Payments were made within ninety (90) days before the Petition Date.

21. The Preference Payments were made while the Debtor was insolvent.

22. The Preference Payments enabled the Defendant to receive more than it would have received in a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code if the Preference Payments had not been made, and the Defendant received payment of such debt to the extent provided by the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

23. The Defendant was the initial transferee of the Preference Payments and the entity for whose benefit the Preference Payments were made.

24. The Preference Payments constitute a preferential transfer of property within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 547(b).

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment against the Defendant:

a. Avoiding the Preference Payments as a preferential transfer under § 547(b) of the Bankruptcy Code;

b. Awarding the Trustee judgment against the Defendant, under § 550 of the Bankruptcy Code, in the amount of $27,608.17, plus statutory interest thereon;
